BRAD'S BLOG

Just finished reading this month's Mustang Times and especially a couple of articles on Carroll Shelby. Carroll graces the July cover and both Austin C. Craig & John Clor's stories tell a lot about the racer, inventor and humanitarian Shelby was. So, will Shelby build the 200 mph Mustang? You bet. Check out July's Mustang Times. Remember, we'll take five dollars off your Michiana Mustangs dues every year you belong to the MCA, too.

Our show will be here before you know it and I'm asking for door prizes. When you're out at your favorite car store or dept. store pick up something you'd like to receive. We'd like everyone who comes to our show to go home with something. If you can, bring them to our picnic on July 9. That will be at Twin Branch Park in Mishawaka. We hope to eat at 6:00 PM and everyone bring a dish to share. If you have a first generation Mustang and would like us to consider it for the Paul Houseman Award, bring it.

Time to get the car ready for a couple of trips to Bremen...

Brad Milliken

Note: Friday, July 13 has been declared National Drive Your Classic Car to Work Day. Let's see some Mustangs on the road!

Notes from Last Month's Meeting

President Brad Milliken called the meeting to order at 7:07. He then asked if we had any new members or guests.

The treasurer's report was given by Ron Newcomer.

Brad then recognized birthdays and anniversaries in June of club members.

Jim Schmidt had nothing new to report from MCA.

Old Business

Val reported that her horn finally works, it was discovered she had a penny stuck in her cigarette lighter.

Brad thanked everyone who participated in the Memorial Day parades.

New Business

Mona Steiner reported she has the Amish Place booked for October 6; a time will be discussed later. Mona told them that that Saturday was the Oktoberfest in Winona Lake so Brad thought we could go there for our fall cruise and then eat at the Amish Place. There will be more details later.

Our club picnic will be at Twin Branch Park at 6:00 on July 9. Please remember to bring a dish to pass.

Carl Kindig offered his grill; he needs someone with a truck to haul it to the park.

It was discussed to maybe get a bench to honor the people who have died that were club members. Also Carl was asked if we could put some kind of Memorial space on our web site. He said he would work on it.

Brad reminded us of our upcoming Show and Shines:

- Ziegler's June 16, 9-2
- Bremen Ford June 30, 9-2

Brad thanked everyone for the good turnout at Eby Ford.

Dave Yoder informed us the Bremen parade will be July 3; we can meet at his old house on SR 331. We will leave from his house at 6 to line-up in town.

Carl Kindig then talked about our Car Show

- He reminded us we need to bring our door prizes.
- He got a box of supplies from MCA to use at the show.
- Howard Barrett and Carl went out to Concord Mall on Friday night to see how Fast Eddie's Cruise was set up and to see if we need more snow fence.
- It was decided that the Ford trailer could be used for part of the fence.

- Also they need to make sure about the electricity. Brad asked for car questions; there were a few.

We had the 50/50 drawing and the meeting was adjourned.

Joyce Yates

Joyce Yates of the Indiana Region Shelby Club died on June 11.

Joyce and her husband Steve founded the Indiana Chapter of the Shelby American Automobile Club in 1977. The first annual Spring Fling was held in May 1978.

Steve and Joyce led Indiana SAAC until Steve's death in 1995. Since then, Joyce has been the anchor for Indiana SAAC and Spring Fling. We send our condolences to the Yates family and to Joyce's 'family' at Indiana SAAC.

These car colors attract the most bird poop

By Zach Bowman

Posted Jun 21st 2012 6:01PM

A new study has revealed red cars attract more bird droppings than any other color. The research, conducted by online retailer Halfords, revealed red vehicles made up 18 percent of cars marked by birds, while blue followed along in second place at 14 percent. Green vehicles got off the easiest, making up just one percent of those in the study. The sample included 1,140 cars in Brighton, Glasgow, Leeds, Manchester and Bristol, though there's no indication as to the total number of each car color in the group.

The study also asked owners how quickly they removed bird droppings from their vehicle's paint. Only one in six said they took care of the problem immediately, while more than half waited until the next car wash. Halfords says leaving the strongly alkali substance on your vehicle's paint work can lead to costly repairs. The company estimates owners spend around $89.3 million per year in damaged paint.

MAYDAY

A guy was towing his boat home from a fishing trip on Lake Huron when his car broke down.

He didn't have a cell phone, but his boat had a marine radio, so he climbed into the boat, clicked on the radio, and said, "Mayday, mayday."

A Coast Guard officer responded, "State your location." "I-75, two miles south of Standish."

There was a long pause before the officer asked, "Just how fast were you going when you reached shore!?"

2012 Eby Show and Shine

Sunny skies helped attract cars and spectators

A special thanks to all who attended the show and shine on Saturday 6-2-12 at Eby Ford in Goshen. A great time was had by all with about 17 of our club cars present. Eby had invited several other people to bring their cars also. The weather was very pleasant even though it was a bit windy. Several of our club members won a $20.00 gift certificate from Hoffman Auto Parts. Morris Eastham, one of our newer members, won the peoples choice award with his 1970 Mach I. I am sure that the dealership was very pleased with our turnout. Thanks again for those who attended and gave up their Saturday to help one of our club sponsors, and thanks to Eby Ford for having us and providing lunch.

2012 Zeigler Show and Shine

18 cars came out to the Zeigler Show and Shine. Thanks for lunch, Kathy!

Two Mustang mice (mice?) were awarded as door prizes, won by Dave Anson and Art Campbell.

As always, members took advantage of the opportunity to visit.

Hot sunny weather greeted us at Zeigler Ford-Lincoln

An early Mustang prototype?

As far as I know, no one took this Boss 302 home with them.

Facts about the Declaration of Independence

(ed. Note: somehow, I thought this would be appropriate this month...)

Have you ever wondered what happened to the 56 men who signed the Declaration of Independence? Five signers were captured by the British as traitors, and tortured before they died.

Twelve had their homes ransacked and burned.

Two lost their sons serving in the Revolutionary Army; another had two sons captured.

Nine of the 56 fought and died from wounds or hardships of the Revolutionary War.

They signed and they pledged their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor.

What kind of men were they?

Twenty-four were lawyers and jurists. Eleven were merchants, nine were farmers and large plantation owners: men of means, well educated. But they signed the Declaration of Independence knowing full well that the penalty would be death if they were captured.

Carter Braxton of Virginia, a wealthy planter and trader saw his ships swept from the seas by the British Navy. He sold his home and properties to pay his debts and died in rags.

Thomas McKean was so hounded by the British that he was forced to move his family almost constantly. He served in the Congress without pay, and his family was kept in hiding. His possessions were taken from him, and poverty was his reward.

Vandals or soldiers looted the properties of Dillery Hall, Clymer, Walton, Gwinnett, Heyward, Rutledge, and Middleton. At the battle of Yorktown, Thomas Nelson, Jr. noted that the British General Cornwallis had taken over the Nelson home for his headquarters. He quietly urged General George Washington to open fire. The home was destroyed, and Nelson died bankrupt.

Francis Lewis had his home and properties destroyed. The enemy jailed his wife, and she died within a few months. John Hart was driven from his wife's bedside as she was dying. Their 13 children fled for their lives. His fields and his gristmill were laid to waste. For more than a year he lived in forests and caves, returning to find his wife dead and his children vanished. A few weeks later he died from exhaustion and a broken heart. Norris and Livingston suffered similar fates.

Such were the stories and sacrifices of the American Revolution. These were not wild-eyed, rabble-rousing ruffians. They were soft-spoken men of means and education. They had security, but they valued liberty more. Standing tall and straight, and unwavering, they pledged: "For the support of the declaration, with firm reliance on the protection of the divine providence, we mutually pledge to each other, our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

Station Wagons: The Documentary?

By Chris Tutor

Posted Jun 21st 2012 11:29AM

It's no secret that the Autoblog corporate offices are teeming with station wagon fans. Give us the choice between a 1965 Buick SportWagon and a brand new Ferrari, and, well, we'll choose the Ferrari every time. But we still like the wagons.

So with excitement we watched the trailer (video available below) for "Wagonmasters," a documentary by a couple of Wake Forest University students covering the iconic American station wagon. The trailer begins with shots of a 1966 Pontiac GTO wagon, which, despite its absolute hotness, was never actually built by GM. The white-hot grocery-getter looks to be a GTO wagon recreation owned by Rocky Boyles in Raleigh, N.C.

It's an easily forgiven blooper that hopefully doesn't portend a disappointing documentary. A little less easily overlooked is an unaccredited quote used in the trailer that says, "The wagon is a thing of the past and I doubt will ever be produced again." How about the Cadillac CTS Sport Wagon, BMW 328i Sports Wagon, or VW Jetta Sportwagen?

The documentary's official website says the film "offers glimpses into the lives of such wagon enthusiasts, and tells the story of the station wagon as it represents a changing America over the last one hundred years." Despite the possibility of flaws, we'll hold our final judgment until after the film is screened July 28 at this year's Concours d'Elegance of America in Plymouth, Mich.

At The Border Checkpoint

Five Englishmen in an Audi Quattro arrived at an Irish border checkpoint.

Paddy, the officer, stops them and tells them: "It is illegal to put five people in a Quattro. Quattro means four."

"Quattro is just the name of the automobile," the Englishman retorted disbelievingly. "Look at the papers: this car is designed to carry five persons."

"You cannot pull that one on me," replies Paddy.

"Quattro means four. You have five people in your car and you are therefore breaking the law."

"You idiot!" the Englishmen replies angrily. "Call your supervisor over. I want to speak to someone with more intelligence!"

"Sorry," responds Paddy, "Murphy is busy with two guys in a Fiat Uno."

From the Back Seat...

I wrote this a couple of years ago, but we do have quite a few new members since then, so I thought I'd repeat it...

The trees in the park...

Seven trees stand to the south and west of the picnic shelter in Twin Branch Park. Seven trees... some well on their way to maturity, others in various stages of the journey... Seven trees planted by the Michiana Mustangs Club in remembrance of members we have lost in the past few years.

The eight people recognized by these trees helped make the club what it is today. Some were not with us a long time; others had a profound influence on us as a club and, for many of us, personally.

Each year we gather among the trees to formally remember our friends. Of course, for many of us these people are in our thoughts throughout the year.

The trees in the park... one more part of the Michiana Mustangs 'family'.

***

We've reached our limit on trees for the park — we will be setting up an area on our web site to honor out lost members. Watch for details.

***

Hope to see everyone at the park next week... it's always a good time with good food and good friends.

Have a great month...
